

The FCC should not impose any rules that would lessen the restrictions currently identified in Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. I have truly enjoyed not being annoyed by callers trying to sell things. This is particularly true in that they call at all hours of the day. It was an interruption to my personal time.
Thank You For Your Time
Ray Burniston Jr.
Markle, IN